

IMAGEM/REFERÊNCIA	LEGENDA
	1 – Pelé celebrates his third world title in a place where he’s always been extremely comfortable: in the arms of the crowd. Azteca Stadium, Mexico City, June 21, 1970. Credit: Placar   Dedoc Abril   Photo Lemyr Martins.
	2 – In his first World Cup, in Sweden, the thrill of the goal was shared with Garrincha. Rasunda Stadium, Solna, June 29, 1958. Credit: Placar   Dedoc Abril   All rights reserved.
	3 – “The heart of the King” is made of sweat and magic. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, October 6, 1976. Credit: Placar   Dedoc Abril   Photo Luiz Paulo Machado.
	4 – Portrait of the world champion at the age of seventeen. Credit: Fundação Arquivo e Memória de Santos   Photo Boris Kauffmann.
	5 – Celebrating the goal that opened the 4-1 win over Italy in the 1970 World Cup final. Azteca Stadium, Mexico City, June 21, 1970. Credit: National Archive   All rights reserved.

6 – The King’s flight to reach the ball before the Paraguayan defender. Puerto Sajonia Stadium (now Defensores del Chaco), Asunción, August 17, 1969. Credit: Agência Estado | All rights reserved.

7 – Arrival at Santos at the age of fifteen. Vila Belmiro, Santos, 1956. Credit: Getty Images | Photo José Dias Herrera.

8 – He scored six goals in the qualifiers for the 1970 World Cup, two of them in the 6-0 win over Venezuela. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, August 24, 1969. Credit: O Globo | All rights reserved.

9 – The goalkeeper’s balancing act to prevent the young striker’s rebound. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, June 19, 1957. Credit: O Globo | All rights reserved.

10 – “The treble leap”: the photo of the celebration was even printed on stamps. Jalisco Stadium, Guadalajara, June 3, 1970. Credit: Manchete | Photo Orlando Abrunhosa.

11 – Crowned king at São Paulo’s farewell to the Brazilian national team. Morumbi, São Paulo, July 11, 1971. Credit: Agência Estado | Photo Domício Pinheiro.

12 – He played in goal four times and went unbeaten. Credit: All rights reserved.

13 – The thousandth goal on a night to remember. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, November 19, 1969. Credit: All rights reserved.

14 – The air punch became his trademark. Jalisco Stadium, Guadalajara, June 3, 1970. Credit: Agência Estado | Photo Domício Pinheiro.

15 – He transformed the number 10 shirt into a symbol of excellence. Ilha do Retiro, Recife, July 13, 1969. Credit: Agência Estado | Photo Domício Pinheiro.

16 – Another farewell to the Brazilian national team, this time in Rio de Janeiro: seventy-seven goals scored in ninety-one official matches. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, July 18, 1971. Credit: Agência Estado | All rights reserved.

17 – An example of dedication in training. Vila Belmiro, Santos, 1958. Credit: Agência Estado | Photo Domício Pinheiro.

18 – Leaving the opposition defense behind. Jalisco Stadium, Guadalajara, June 17, 1970. Credit: O Globo | All rights reserved.

19 – The perfect bicycle kick. Maracanã, Rio de Janeiro, June 2, 1965. Credit: CPDoc JB | Photo Alberto Ferreira.

20 – With his father, Dondinho, and son Edinho, three generations of players. 1995. Credit: Abril | Bob Wolfenson.

21 – Always a danger to rival goalkeepers. Vila Belmiro, Santos, 1958. Credit: Getty | Photo José Dias Herrera.

22 – In a relaxed mood, next to the great Didi. Peru, 1959. Credit: Cia. da Memória | All rights reserved.